

WAS A HARD FIGHT

Haymarket Prize Fighters on Trial in Court.

THE SECONDS' EXAMINATION

Two Time-keepers and a Spectator Sworn-Ulery Will Plead Guilty. Other Court News.

The examination of Charles Gallagher and Guy Bradford, the seconds at the Haymarket prize fight, was begun in police court yesterday afternoon, and attracted a large audience. Pat Quiley, a bellboy at the Bridge Street house, Jake Mol and John Emmens were the only witnesses sworn, but the evidence given by them is strong. The defense will be that it was a glove contest and not a prize fight. The witnesses called at a police fight, and Quiley admitted that he understood that Taylor and Broom fought for a prize. He paid $1 to get into the building. Jake Mol and John Emmens were time-keepers at the fight, and admitted it on the stand. Their story of the fight was similar to the story as published in the daily papers. Broom was knocked down in the fourth round and did not rise. The crowd got around and ran, leaving a few of Broom's friends to care for him. Quiley swore that he stayed with Broom, and went home with him in the back and remained with him until daylight. The examination will be continued on March 23.

Court Notes.

Every cell in the county jail is now occupied and prisoners are being sent there daily. They officers in charge say they do not know how they can provide accommodations for an additional number.

Detectives Smith and Darr arrested Ira Mull last evening on a warrant for disorderly conduct. The specific act of disorderly was reported to be indecent exposure of his person.

William Hessler, charged with embezzling $80 from West's drug store, demanded an examination in police court yesterday, and the case was adjourned until March 27.

Ira Mull was arrested on a charge of indecent exposure. He pleaded not guilty and will be examined March 23. A little girl is the complainant.

Ed Fitz Gerald is on trial in the superior court for the larceny of a gold watch from the pocket of a Detroit lumber dealer.

John Kinneman, charged with assault and battery, pleaded guilty in police court and was sent to jail for thirty days.

The jury which tried John B. Hughes for keeping open after hours found him guilty after about an hour's deliberation.

A petition was filed in probate yesterday asking for the admission of Folly J. Covert into the asylum at Kalamazoo.

Faxon & Libbey began suit in the circuit court yesterday against Fred E. Hakeley, to recover a debt of $500.

Low Spaulding paid $75 fine and $50.00 costs in Judge J. H. Court yesterday, for selling liquor without a license.

GIVEN UP TO DIE! GRAVEL & KIDNEY COMPLAINT, A Marvelous Cure!

"For several years I suffered intense pain in my back and side. I had no appetite. My stomach was sour and could not digest food. My bowels were tender and constipated and I was weak and completely run down. I tried all the doctors in my town without benefit. They called it Gravel and Stone passing through the kidneys, and said I must die. I took Swamp-Root and after using two bottles found it was helping me. I kept right on with it and passed gravel as much as a large goose egg, which I send you herewith. I worked hard all summer and today am perfectly sound and well. If any doubt the truth, write and I will answer the full particulars." LABORN BOWERSMITH.
